OneVoice27 Prayer Vigil

When: September 4–6, 2026

OneVoice27 is part of a global initiative commemorating 2,000 years since Jesus Christ's earthly ministry. It is a call for believers everywhere to rediscover the life and teachings of Jesus and proclaim His gospel through every available platform, culminating in a united global harvest on 25 September 2027.

At the heart of this movement is prayer. Before we create, post, speak, write, film, design or share, we must pray and seek God's presence and the leading of His Spirit.

The South Pacific Division will hold the SPD OneVoice27 Prayer Vigil from 3:00pm Friday, September 4, to 3:00pm Sunday, September 6, 2026 (AEST). Churches and participating entities across the region will each host an hour of prayer, creating an unbroken chain of prayer throughout the South Pacific.

South Australian Conference Prayer Hour

The South Australian Conference is scheduled to lead a prayer session on:

Sabbath, September 5 | 7:30–8:30am ACST

Please note: the Prayer Weekend Schedule lists this session as 8:00–9:00am AEST. For South Australia, this corresponds to 7:30–8:30am ACST.

Members are welcome to join any prayer session throughout the weekend, but we would especially love to see you join the South Australian Conference prayer hour. We will pray for personal revival, our families, churches and communities, creativity and mission, open doors for the gospel, and most importantly, for people's hearts. We will pray that the Holy Spirit prepares people to encounter Jesus and gives us courage and wisdom to share our faith. Join us with your church, family, youth or prayer group for this special weekend of thanksgiving, sharing and prayer as we seek God's leading for OneVoice27 and the mission of the Church throughout the South Pacific.
